CHAS. SEDELMAYER, Publisher and Art dealer, Paris, has the richest stock of original pictures in Europe.

His gallery includes over 800 works by Old Masters, of which this Catalogue describes only a portion, and a similar number of pictures by living artists, and painters of the Barbizon School.

CHAS. SEDELMAYER, who imported and sold to the United States the two celebrated pictures by Munkacsy « Christ before Pilate » and « Christ on Calvary », controls the works of this artist and those of V. de Brozik, Tito Lessi, Eugene Jettel, etc.

He publishes every year a selection of fine and important plates, of which only a small number of proofs are printed.

He has just issued the second volume of a most extensive book in 8 volumes on Rembrandt, containing reproductions of all the pictures of this master; the text by Doctor W. Bode, Director of the Berlin Gallery. Subscriptions now received.

The prospectus of this book, and illustrated catalogues of other publications, to be had at CHAS. SEDELMAYER'S, 6, rue de La Rochefoucauld, Paris.

MORLAND (GEORGE)

(1763-1804)

88. — The Gamekeeper's Return

In front of a cottage, partly hidden by trees, the gamekeeper, the bridle of his poney round his right arm, holds up with his left hand a pheasant, to show it to his wife, seated in front of the cottage-door, a child in her lap. By her side, a little boy and a girl are playing with a dead hare. An older boy is standing on the farther side, and four dogs are grouped in a half-circle before their master.

The Times, London, May 21, 1896.

No such monument has ever been erected to any painter. To attempt such a work at all, three things were necessary — photography with its modern development, enterprise, and a critical authority as complete as Dr. Bode's is.

The Times, London, April 14, 1897.

We commend this book as a wonderful result of modern reconstructive scholarship, zeal, and enterprise. When the eight volumes are completed, they will be quite indispensable to every library which concerns itself with the history of art.

The Times, London, January 7, 1898.

The second of the eight volumes of this important and splendid work has just been issued by M. Sedelmeyer and is not less carefully executed than the first.

The volume as a whole, like its predecessor, represents all that scholarship, care, and money can do towards the erection of a worthy monument to Rembrandt's memory.

The Daily Chronicle, London, April 29, 1896.

These photogravures are invaluable to students of Rembrandt and are excellently produced. The expense, research and energy of Mr. Sedelmeyer in making this collection must have been enormous.

All we can say is that the subject is worthy of it, and happy will they be who can become owners of the costly work, which is to be issued in eight volumes.

Illustrated London News, April 25, 1896.

The value and beauty of this collection, which exceeds anything before attempted, are beyond controversy.

The Daily Telegraph, London, October 22, 1896.

The work will be a veritable monument to the genius of the very greatest of all painters.

American Register, Paris, March 27, 1897.

A magnificent work of art, at which no less a connoisseur than Mr. Charles Sedelmeyer, the well-known dealer and expert in art, in collaboration with Director Bode, has been working for fully fifteen years, has at last been completed. It is the richly illustrated edition in eight large volumes of "L'Œuvre Complet de Rembrandt," a veritable literary and artistic monument to the great Dutch master, all of whose works, scattered throughout the world, have here been reproduced in heliogravure, with full descriptive text. The first volume has made its appearance, and, as might well have been foreseen, does great credit to the enterprising editor as well as to France.

The Collector, New York, April 15, 1897.

Nothing has yet been done, either in honour of any single artist or for the recording of his works, to even approach « The Complete Work of Rembrandt » which is published by M. Sedelmeyer, of Paris.... It comes in the shape of a fat folio, of the most sumptuous form of artistic embellishment and typography, and, entirely apart from its magnificence as an art work, is a book of reference no true collector can fail to appreciate.

The Art Amateur, New York, December, 1897.

The Complete Work of Rembrandt, which Dr. Bode has spent fifteen years in preparing and of which Mr. Sedelmeyer has already issued the first two volumes in truly magnificent style, will reproduce every known painting by the master, one hundred and fifty of them never before published.

The Art Amateur, New York, February, 1898.

The second volume of Dr. Bode's monumental work, which has just been delivered to American subscribers is even richer and more interesting than the first volume, as it reproduces the work of a more advanced period of the master. As compared with the most thorough of his predecessors, Dr. Bode is immensely more full and authoritative. Where he differs from them in regard to individual pictures, the layman will do well, as in most such cases, to pin his faith to the most recent authority. Dr. Bode has had many advantages for which Vosmaer or Michel might sigh in vain. His learning is disputed by no one; and there is throughout his work abundant evidence of a calm judgment and a disposition to examine carefully both sides of every open question. When he admits as genuine works of Rembrandt paintings which other critics have pronounced doubtful, he speaks with precision, while they express themselves in a hesitating manner, and seem ready to withdraw every opinion that they advance. The difference of manner is due, it is safe to say, to real knowledge on the one side and presumptuous ignorance on the other. Many things have come to light since Michel wrote his book — a great book for its day — and the whole mass of evidence, new and old, has been sifted and weighed with the greatest care by Dr. Bode. The hundreds of photogravures from the original paintings which illustrate his great work are of the highest merit, and are as superior in quality to the illustrations of former works on Rembrandt as they vastly outnumber them.
